Fair usage

- The maximum number of free subscriptions per company is unlimited, however, Graphisoft UK reserve the right to limit the number of licences based on fair usage for an individual Subscriber or company. If the Subscriber wishes to take more than 25 licences during the free period they will need to discuss their needs with Graphisoft UK.
- Additional subscriptions added to the first subscription will be co-termed to the original free 6 month period. Therefore if Subscriber takes their first licences in July, which expire in December, and then take further licences in September, the September licences will also expire in December.
- The free period starts when Subscriber subscribes to their first free licences. The total free period for any single subscriber or company will be no longer than 6 months. Graphisoft reserves the right to cancel/lapse licences if it is felt a subscriber or company has broken the spirit of this term.

Support during free period

- Subscriber will have full access to the following Upgrade and Support (UAS) services
 - Free telephone & email technical support
 - Free Add-ons and Object downloads from the UAS download site
 - Free self-paced and online Essentials and Advanced training from <https://learn.graphisoft.com/>
- Subscriber DOES NOT have access to free Twinmotion download
- Subscriber DOES NOT have access to EcoDesigner Star add-on

End of the free period

- Subscriber will receive timely email notifications that the free period is coming to an end and that action is required.
- Subscriber needs to cancel all subscriptions that they do not wish to pay for.
- Any subscriptions not cancelled will move to a monthly paid subscription and Subscriber's original credit card will be debited.
